

ATEX

Objectives: The aim of this course is to gain insight into the regulations which implement the ATEX directives and associated requirements. Participants gain an understanding of the requirements on the construction and use of equipment, and requirements on the employer and workplace.

Intended for: Manufacturers, authorised workshops, engineers, buyers, and managers of electrical, mechanical and maintenance activities. The course is also suitable for electricians and mechanics who wish to learn about the ATEX directives.

Contents:

- Contents from the regulations related to the ATEX 94/9/EC directive.
  - EU directives
  - The link between regulations and standards
  - Harmonized ATEX standards
  - Areas of application
  - Definitions
  - Safety requirements
  - CE marking
  - Documentation
  - Conformity assessment
- Contents from the regulations related to the ATEX 1999/92/EC directive.
  - Purpose
  - Definitions
  - Who the regulations apply to
  - Risk assessment
  - Zone classification
  - Improving safety

Participants: Maximum 15 participants

Duration: 5 hours

Location: At our training centre or on enquiry

Course manager: Bjørn Schjøll Kristoffersen

Language: English, Norwegian

Teaching method: Instructor

Price per participant: NOK 2,300.00