

FSE high-voltage (operation of electrical installations)

Objectives:	This course helps participants develop a greater awareness of electrical safety thus reducing the risk of injury and material damage.
Intended for:	Anyone with access rights to high-voltage rooms or plants.
Contents:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Structure and content of FSE• The most important parts of FSE• The need for regulations related to safety with work and operation of high-voltage plants• Consequences of electric shock and electric arc injuries• Central injury statistics• The human factor• Safety routines• Service equipment The course meets the official requirements regarding theoretical refresher courses as stated in §7 in FSE.
Participants:	Maximum 15 participants
Duration:	1 day
Location:	At our training centre or on enquiry
Course manager:	Ole Petter Sørensen
Language:	English, Norwegian
Teaching method:	Instructor
Price per participant:	NOK 2,100.00